

YoughaloweenSpooktacular

27th-29th October, Youghal, Co. Cork

27th-October

Join us on Friday night for an extraordinary opening ceremony, as the people of Youghal gather to welcome An Bhean Uisce home. An Bhean Uisce returns once a year from her watery grave to walk amongst the people of Youghal once more. Watch as a gathering of witches conjure her up from the sea as they perform an ancient ritual, a ritual that celebrates the ancient festival of Samhain. The atmosphere is truly otherworldly with fires lighting on the beach and the sound of distant drums. Bring a lantern and join in the parade through the medieval streets of Youghal, finishing back at the beach as the Youghal skies are lit up fireworks.

28th-October

Saturday visit the Haunted Town Centre. Wander through the terrifying and eerie graveyard; avoid the cackling witches and ghoulish knights as they work their ghastly torture machines. Visit the Florence Newton Witchling School, learn how to make a potion, a wand, or a broomstick! Come and visit fortune tellers corner. Check out the funeral pyre. Pay your respects to the dead by lighting candles and incense sticks. Visit the BheanUisce and leave a wish so that she can bring it back out to sea with her for the closing ceremony. Walk the ancient labyrinth and find inner peace. Will you be brave enough to sit and listen to our Ghost stories!!!!

Mystery Haunted tours will also be held over the weekend.
Come visit our Clock Tower and journey through centuries of time.
Florence Newton Museum of Witchcraft and Magick will also be opened all weekend
