

SATURDAY 18TH AUGUST EVENTS

Between 10am & 4pm FAMILY FRIENDLY

Sir Walter Raleigh's Treasure Trail of St. Mary's Collegiate Church & Grounds

Go on a treasure hunt for Sir Walter Raleigh's head in St. Mary's Collegiate Church (Pick up tear-off trail inside Church).

Tours at 10.30am & 2pm FAMILY FRIENDLY

Guided Tours of St. Mary's Collegiate Church (30 minutes duration)

Take a guided tour of the 13th century St Mary's Collegiate Church; a National Monument of international significance. Tours are tailored to suit families of all ages!

At 12noon FAMILY FRIENDLY

The fascinating true story of "Carolina – The Princess of Capua"

Local historian & storyteller supreme, Kay Donnelly tells the beautiful story of Youghal Princess, Her Royal Highness Penelope Carolina Princess of Capua, daughter of Grice Smyth Esq. of Ballynatray, Co. Waterford at 12noon & 3pm FAMILY FRIENDLY

Medieval Battle!

A weekend highlight! See over 30 of 'The White Horse Vikings' take to battle!

at 12.30pm & 3.30pm FAMILY FRIENDLY

Kids Medieval Battle! (suitable for kids 7-10 years)

Take up your sword! Under the direction of the White Horse Vikings let the battle commence

at 2.30pm & 4.30pm FAMILY FRIENDLY

'Janey Mac' by Cork Favourites, the Downton Puppets.

Janey Mac and her puppy 'Pepper' make a wish in the magical stone circle in Aunty Megan's back yard and find themselves transported back in time, trying to find each other and their way home.

At 1.00pm FAMILY FRIENDLY

"Urban Wildlife" Explore our Natural Heritage At St. Marys Graveyard (30/35 minutes)

Be enthralled with the amazing truth of our urban wildlife. Highly regarded Wildlife Conservationist, Pat Smiddy, tells us more about the fascinating habits and habitats of our wildlife at St. Mary's Collegiate Church Grounds.

At 3pm

"St Mary's Collegiate Church Custom & Liturgy Directed its Architecture"

An invitation to experience and marvel at the interior of St. Mary's Collegiate Church with highly acclaimed historian and author, David Kelly. Discover its medieval origin and how custom and liturgy affected its extraordinary architecture.

From 6pm to 8pm

FREE GALA Concert with noted vocalists Caroline Fraher & John Daly: Booking advisable on www.themallartscentre.com

Caroline Fraher is one of Ireland's best kept musical secrets. Her voice is one of ethereal quality, rich tones and beautiful expression. This year for our Medieval Festival Caroline is joined by acclaimed Tenor, John Daly. The unique timbre of John's voice combined with Caroline's angelic tones makes for an evening of unrivalled music in the perfect setting of St. Mary's Collegiate Church.

SUNDAY 19TH AUGUST EVENTS

Between 12noon & 6pm FAMILY FRIENDLY

A Whole Range of Kids Fun!

Face Painting, Coin pressing, balloon magic, medieval hair-braiding, interactive magician, paint your own mask, make/colour your own shield, temporary tattoos, sand art.

Between 12noon & 5pm FAMILY FRIENDLY

'The White Horse Vikings' Medieval Village Experience

Immerse yourself in the Medieval way of life in Youghal's Medieval Village. With over 10 medieval tents filled and activities such as medieval cooking, animal hide tanning, leather working, pottery making, woodworking, tablet weaving/cloth making, medieval armoury & blacksmith.

at 1.30pm FAMILY FRIENDLY

Performance by Youghal Pipe Band

Founded in Youghal by Danny 'Duis' McCarthy in 1914, the pipe band's performance is always a festival showstopper!

Tours at 2pm & 4pm FAMILY FRIENDLY

Guided Tours of St. Mary's Collegiate Church. (30 minutes)

Take a guided tour of the 13th century St. Mary's Collegiate Church – National Monument of International significance.

Between 10am & 4pm FAMILY FRIENDLY

"Can you dig it?" Archaeological Dig for Kids! Suitable for ages 8+. 35 minute workshop sessions.

Real life, hands on experiential learning for kids! These 35 minute workshops will allow kids to take part in an archaeological 'dig' under the supervision of a team of qualified archaeologists!

Between 12noon & 6pm FAMILY FRIENDLY

Artisan Food & Craft Fair

Never go hungry at Youghal Medieval Festival! Featuring a host of top quality food and craft producers!

